Ruby's Eyes

Big Beautiful Brown Eyes that shine like the sun. Behind her eyes laid wisdom, empathy and love. Ruby's eyes light up a room. You knew what she felt when you looked in them. She was straight with no chaser, but her love was like warm cocoa on a winter's day.

Ruby's Eyes saw something special in each of us. She motivated each of us to strive to be better. She instilled the love of God in each of us and believed family closeness was important. She taught us all that laughter was the key to happiness. Her sense of humor was a gift. Just when you thought you could get her, she had a joke to top yours that left you speechless.

Ruby's eyes are no longer going to be here with us. They have ascended to heaven with many other loved ones. She will forever remain in our hearts and memories. We will always love her for what she brought into each of our lives. Get your rest Ruby D! We love you beyond the stars. Even though we'll miss you, we know you are in a better place.
